

MES – MASTER IN EUROPEAN STUDIES

ONE YEAR MASTER

II Edition: September 2009 – July 2010

The European Union is a unique political project with a wide range of future opportunities. It offers different employment possibilities that require specific academic and practical professional preparation. LUISS offers the Master in European Studies in order to meet the increasing demand for this international market.

STRUCTURE

The Master is a one-year interdisciplinary programme, aimed at providing students with a broad and specific knowledge about the main activities of the European Union, and about Europe: European Union institutions and policies, European macroeconomics, the political history of Europe and European integration, European political and constitutional systems. Special emphasis is laid on EU-Mediterranean Relations.
